

Robert Cano Jr.

November 1, 1987 - January 23, 2014

Robert Cano, 26, went to be with our Lord January 23, 2014 joining his loved ones. Graduating from NKHS and J.S.R., Robert went on to obtain a career in the electrical field through NJATC. His ultimate goal was earning his Master's in the trade. He was a member of IBEW, graduating in 2011 from JATC.

Robert is survived by his mother and step-father, Barbara and Tony Silva Jr.; sister Lisa; brother T.J.; first cousin, Chris, whom he thought of as a brother. He is also survived by his nephew, Josh; over 30 cousins; and many aunts and uncles. Grandparents, John and Ellen Poe, Ede and Tony Silva Sr., and Chico Clements. Two great-grandfathers, Bernard Silva Sr., and Frank Becker.

A funeral service will be held 12pm, Friday at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140 with burial following in Washington Memorial Park, Sandston, VA. The family will have private time 11-1pm; with friends 2-4pm and 6-8pm. Robert touched the hearts of all that knew him putting everyone before himself. He was known for his humorous, yet warm-hearted demeanor. He will always be our superhero.

“ My sympathy goes out to the family. I know that this is a difficult time right now. The loss of a loved one leaves a void in our hearts and our lives. The pain seems like it will never end sometimes.

We were never intended to experience such grief and sorrow. Although this is a sad time, there is a shining light to brighten your life, found in your personal copy of the bible. The bible promises that soon your loved one will hear the voice of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and awaken to live forever on a new paradise earth where death will be no more, neither will pain and suffering. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:1-4)

What a beautiful day that will be! Soon our loving Creator, Jehovah God will fulfill that promise and "no resident will say, "I am sick" ever again.

I pray that this knowledge gives the family and friends the strength to endure until that day comes.

“ Dear family and friends of dear Robert, please accept my deepest condolences. Although I didn't know him personally, Robert's picture says a lot about him. There really are no words to express the heartfelt sadness one feels when a life is extinguished so suddenly. May you find comfort in the presence of your family and friends and in the memories that you cherish. Time and unexpected events befall us all, states Ecclesiastes 9:11, nothing can prepare us for the death of a loved one. The sting of death is sharp and painful. But happily, death does not end it all! Right now Robert is sleeping in God's memory, the best place to be. (John 11:11) When God's Kingdom comes, and His will is done on earth just as it is already being done in Heaven, Robert will wake up in perfect health in a beautiful paradise right here on earth! He will again do the earthly things he loved to do! (Matthew 6:9,10; John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:10,11,29) There will be no mourning, no tears, no pain, the former things will have passed away! (Revelation 21:3,4) Things will be as God originally purposed for mankind in the beginning! (Isaiah 55:10,11) I sincerely hope you will find comfort in this good news from God's Word! (Matthew 24:14)
