“ Sharing a memory is very hard especially when we are left with so many and so it's hard to choose just one. But Robert was the very first grandchild born into our family and I was chosen to be his Godmother not sure if he thought I was the best fit but I did my best. I tried to be there when he needed me and helped when I could and encouraged him to do good. There will no longer be a future with you and we can only guess how it might have ended. Mine will be a happy one. Till we meet again nephew. Soon enough we will all reunite.

“ Losing you, my brother is and will be one of the hardest things I will ever have to face. I will forever have you on my mind and in my heart. 💙

You left me with big shoes to fill for being the oldest as you watched over us, stood up for us and made sure we stayed on the right path.

I even took after you in ways, I still wear the same cologne that you got me hooked on and I know it's funny but I have to clean my ears after every shower but not use how many q-tips like you did.

I admired the way you were able to ride dirt bikes and four wheelers and wished I could ride as good as you.

Your determination and drive to do things will be hard to compete with.

Robert, you will truly be missed Big Brother! I love you so much! May you rest in peace now as you were sent above ☐ until we meet again ☐

“ I went to School with Rob, he was in my group for 8th grade trip to Dorney Park. When Rob and Darrell were waiting to go on the roller coaster ride they wanted me to go on with them and he told the people that was waiting in line that I was their sister. We were on that roller coaster ride it was rob, me and the Darrell and I remember when the ride was going down, rob put his arm across my stomach and I wasn't that scared anymore. My prayers and condolences are with his wife and family. 🙏

“The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” ~ Psalm 34:18

He is close to the brokenhearted, ready to mend your wounds and give you hope as you move through your pain. May you allow Him to wrap His great arms of love around you like a warm blanket, surrounding you with a peace that can only come from Him, just collapse in the cradle of His embrace where you can draw from His never ending strength. My heart hurts for you all. I'm sending this message of sympathy with so much love. I am so very sorry. I miss my good neighbors. Suzie
