“ I know you and your family do not know us but we are the family Gregg was going to get his new puppy from. He and his sweet mom came with Lynn to our house a few Saturdays ago and played with and loved on his new fur friend for hours. We knew right away this puppy would be going to a wonderful home. Gregg was so taken with him and it was “love at first sight”. We are so very sorry for your tragic loss and are keeping your entire family in our daily thoughts and prayers. RIP Gregg. We are taking care of “Duke”.

I talked to Gregg on Facebook when he posted a picture saying he was going to have a new fishing buddy. Duke is the cutest little thing. Thank you for taking care of him for my cousin. He'll be watching over him from God's house now.

“ I grew up with Greg as my cousin/brother. We gave our Nana a fit on days especially when I would sneak out and hide in his Jeep and once he started down the road I would jump up and yell "I'm going with you" . He would whip the Jeep around in the road and take me crying back to Nana. Oh the fun we had!!! Love you always !!! Don't eat too many Tacos in heaven or the whole place will stink!!!! Lol

Talked to him the evening before he passed. I guess God sometimes reminds us how precious friends and our lives are. Till we meet again Greg. Thanks so much for always asking if I needed help on church functions.
