“ Beaver, there aren't words to express my grief. You are responsible for one of the best decisions I've made in my life, to move to Virginia. We had great times together when we were young and our friendship spanned many many years! It was beautiful the day you left my friend, so I know you are restored in Heaven. I believe we will see each other when the time comes. Until then, know you are very loved and missed by many.
