“ Bob, my love, summer, Thanksgiving, Christmas & New Year's have passed without you. It hasn't been easy for me, but God is helping me. I miss everything about you - your endless smile, laughter, patience, kindness, & all around goodness of your heart. I miss your hugs, your kisses, laying next to you to keep me warm, the comfort you gave me when I was sick. I miss writing "honey-do" lists. I didn't get to read your last letter, Mae deleted the entire file of love letters you wrote me in our almost 15 yrs together, but you know that. She will answer for her sins. You & God know everything happening to me.

I have dreams of you laying next to me & when I wake up, you aren't there, but I feel you. Pam, Bill, Susan & Pat have been so good to me like you said they would be. But it's not the same without you. God knows how much I've prayed for Him to take me so I could be with you. I'm still here so I guess it isn't His plan for me yet.

The days, weeks & months pass & I'm only existing until I see you again. I know I'll have a place with God & next to you because I ask His forgiveness & I'm living my life as He would want me to. You would be so proud of me. No one has entered my life & will NEVER enter my heart as you did. I could NEVER love anyone as much as I love you.

I love you so much & miss you so much. I hope God allows your spirit to stay with me because I need you. I couldn't live without your spirit. I wish I had the strength to take my life but I know that would be wrong. I'll just have to wait until God is ready for me.

Chris came to visit me my first Christmas without you. I was so grateful. He misses you & loves you too. We talked about all the phone conversations you had, especially the night before you left me. He'll never forget you.

Until we meet again,

Your loving wife & "Sunshine"
Paula

“ I couldnt bring myself to write about you until now on your obituary site. Just a few days past your 6 month anniversary, but it seems like only yesterday you left me. I miss you so much. I still cant believe you're gone. I dream of you lying next to me in bed or walking into the room & saying "Honey, I'm home" or telling me I missed a spot when cutting the grass. I still feel your presence. The other day your hat fell off the rack & landed on the washer when I wasnt anywhere near the washer. I knew it was you giving me a sign you were still watching over me. I miss your voice, your touch, your smile, sitting next to you in church - everything about you. My only comfort is knowing God is taking care of you. You are healed & safe from your heart being broken. You know things happened with Mae after you left me. Its nothing you taught her. She let you down & some day she will answer to God. I wake up each morning & live like I'm in someone elses' body. I was so blessed when you came into my life & I'm so grateful. You loved me the way I was meant to be loved & I loved you so much back. No one can help me except God. We created so many memories I will never forget. I will never love anyone else (if at all) more than I loved you. This is a promise I made to you & I will keep it. You promised to save a place for me & I know you will keep your promise. Until we meet again my love, your loving wife, Paula

“ I was saddened by the news of Bob's passing. I always enjoyed my visits with Bob whether in passing on the plant floor or while attending company social events. Bob had a warm smile and pleasing personality. He had the "glass is always half full" attitude coupled with excellent knowledge and experience of equipment and trouble shooting. His contributions to the success of our Company were significant. We will miss him greatly.

Thank you & your wife for attending Bob's service. I appreciate all Colortree did for me after his passing, with paperwork I didn't know how to complete. I am so grateful for your support.
