“ Jason- I miss you beyond belief. You were my BF for 6 years.. It just doesn't feel right not checking on you, I find myself checking my phone all day to see if you have messaged me. I miss our deep conversations, how we both suffered with anxiety and depression, I loved helping you on the days when you just couldn't take it anymore. You're a very special person to me, I'll never forget you. Your loss has affected a lot of your friends and family. Summer misses her dad.. RIP Best Friend.. Until we meet again.💔

“ Jason, I'll always remember you. We went through kindergarten all the way to elementary school together in the 80's so you are an integral part of my childhood. We got in trouble together in first grade, lol, and competed against each other in spelling bees (which you usually won!). I loved the fact that we reconnected through Facebook and talked in messenger occasionally. You had such a huge heart; you were always trying to help others achieve their potential. I hope you are at peace now and that your dad greeted you with open arms. Love you, guy.

Dear Cathy & family, my heart is aching for you. Jason holds a special spot in my heart. I remember as a child he would crawl up beside me to scratch his back or rub his arm. I loved it as much as he did. Jason you are now in the comfort of God's arms with a healthy body and smiling, as you always smile. Cathy may God keep you in his tender arms in all the days ahead. Love to all.

I spoke with you a few days before you passed. I even called you a few days after you passed, just thinking that you would call me back as you always did. This was a hard pill to swallow, bro as we spoke often about high school sports in life and about our children and I know how much you love your daughter and I pray that the Lord gives her comfort. I will certainly miss the conversations, and I will change the memories of riding to football games together and just hanging out. Love you always bro.
