“ I was training Robyn to take over my job, since I was leaving on maternity leave in 1975. Maybe two weeks after we were working together, we realized that she is my husband's cousin. She had that beautiful laugh of hers. She will be missed. Thinking of the family and sending love and prayers. Renee & Ted

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! I haven't seen Robyn in many years. We were at Robyn's house when the Beatles were on Ed Sullivan! As they sang When I Saw Her Standing There she and I screamed and cried and jumped up and down her pigtails flying! I will never forget that! She was so sweet and we were great friends so many years ago ! May she RIP!

“ My thoughts and prayers go to Runnie, Megan and the family. My heart is breaking but I have so many wonderful memories of my special times with Robyn. The crafts show, our girl trips to Nags Head, our trip to San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and Las Vegas. I worked closely with Robyn at Philip Morris for 35 years and have many cherished memories during that time. She showed me the ropes when I first starting working there and we became instant friends. We shared the love of crafting, cross stitching, cooking and reading, The world will never be the same for me without her in it but I know she is resting in peace without pain and I will see her again someday. Until then rest in peace my friend.
