I don,t know how to express my sorrow in the loss of my cousin Ron. We have been close friends for many years, I guess since our birth in Franklin va. Ron,s mom would always tell us of things we were to young to remember. Later years when I was in the army and at Fort Knox ky and Ron was working nearby I had the chance to get up with him and meet his wonderful girlfriend Paulette whom he would later marry . We visited some strip mines n collected fools gold, thought I was rich. Later Ron and I went fishing at a pond, I sat on an old log and ended up with 33 chigger bites. Had a lot of explaining to do to the troops when I got back to Knox. Later years we hunted together and I have many memories of that. The last few years we kept in touch by phone, hell with e-mail. We last spoke a few weeks ago, who knew it would be the last. I,ll miss you Ron, you were always there. Happy 74 th birthday in heaven, 3/26/15. Love, jerry and Faye Fudala.
