

Ronald W. Lloyd

January 7, 1948 - May 12, 2018

Ronald (Ron) Waylon Lloyd of Glen Allen, VA, passed away on May 12th at the age of 70. He was born on January 7, 1948 in Henrico, VA to the late Waylon H. and Eleanor G. Lloyd.

Ron attended Hermitage High School and graduated from RPI-VCU in Advertising and Marketing. He excelled as creative director at WTVR Channel 6 for 12 years. He then secured a position in the Advertising Department at Life of Virginia, and then switched to the Markel Corporation to move his family from Richmond to Glen Allen. After many years serving his current position, he left to pursue his dream of owning his own business.

Ron had a lifelong affair with sailing, old cars, BBQ and bourbon. Ron loved his grandchildren. He was a quiet man, and rarely did you know his inner thoughts. Ron was honest, fair and a hardworking man. He could tackle any job and do it well.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Evelyn (Lyn) C. Beatley Lloyd and a son Waylon C. and wife Alesia (Nikki) Lloyd, as well as their two children Colin Patrick and Kayla Christian Lloyd all from Henrico; a sister, Jacqueline (Jackie) L. Cozens and a host of family and friends.

A private memorial celebration of his life will be held at a later date. He will be laid to rest at Olivet Church and Cemetery in New Kent County, VA.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to be made to "Olivet Church"
C/O Larry Davis, Treasurer, 4905 Lakemere Ct. N. Chesterfield, VA 23234.
Donations are for the preservation and care of Olivet Church and Cemetery in New Kent County, VA.
