“ I met Rose only once, but in the time we spent together I found her to be funny, kind, and loving. I liked her immediately; we bonded over 70s music and the love of our families. I was saddened to hear that she had passed away. I was looking forward to sharing taking care of our grandchildren that her son, Darren, and daughter-in-law, Samantha would produce. Rose will be missed by many. Bless her family and friends; much love goes out to her from us, the Schaefers.
