“ Ruby is my paternal first cousin. While I at age 86 am much older than Ruby, I recall this beautiful child, and even later a lovely, kind adult. Although I have not seen Ruby since about 2006 when I visited her mother, my aunt Elizabeth Rinehart, in the hospital just before she died, Ruby Faye and I shared Christmas cards over many years. Strange that she has been so much on my mind recently to the point I planned to contacted her. Learning from our mutual first cousin, Frances Carlton, about Ruby's death has greatly saddened me. Ruby, God bless you and keep you until all of our family can meet again one day. While health concerns prevent me from attending the viewing with family, my thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ We were so blessed to have Ruby as our neighbor. She became a best friend and was like a mother to us. The time we had with her was short but filled with great times and many many memories. Ruby, you go rest now until we meet again.
