“ Goodness sakes ... I was so surprised to read about Rylands' passing this morning ! I can still see him burning up the floor at the SOCK HOP at the Armory in West Point many years ago dancing to most every song played. He was a hard working person who would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it and years have kept us from seeing each other .. rather at the doctor's office or pharmacy more often than usual. PEACE be with you MY BROTHER !!!
