“ Hello. My name is Aleathia Hudson. Mrs. Sabra use to watch me a long time ago. I'm just hearing that she passed. I just want to say she was nice, loving, caring and more. She helped my mom out with praise dances. She was just a beautiful soul.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Sabra's friends and family in this difficult time; I hope that you are able to find some comfort as you gather together and read the fond memories that so many people have of her. Like John and Shannon, I am truly saddened to hear of Sabra's passing. I was remembering her fondly just the other day with a friend as we reminisced about our favorite friends in high school. Sabra knew how to make us all smile and laugh, and it was easy to feel as if you'd always been friends. I love hearing that she continued to make such a positive impact on others after school, as a fellow teacher and animal advocate; but of course I'm not surprised. She will be dearly missed.

“ My prayers go out to the entire family.
Sabra and I went out together in high school.
We went to my junior prom together at LHS.
She always knew how to make us laugh and feel good about ourselves.
I remember riding down to New Port News with Sabra and her mother when they were getting ready to move from CT down to VA. 20 if not 30 some odd years ago.
We got to the tunnel that went under the Chesapeake Bay. I had never seen it before and I thought the bridge had fallen in the water I was freaking out because her mom just kept driving, and they laughed at me all the way though the tunnel. So many memories together, will cherish them so much more now. God rest your soul Sabra.

You will be missed greatly. John Laflamme

“ Sabra was my bestest friend in high school and kept in touch off and on through the years. I hope she didn't suffer. I pray for her children and family. I'm in shock. And heartbroken. I will forever love and cherish your friendship. RIP my friend.

“ Both of my sons had the great fortune of having Sabra as the teacher. The oldest had her for both 5th and 6th grade. Sabra was the kind of teacher that rarely stuck to the "script" so to speak. She was open, smart, and imaginative, and she pulled the best from her students. When my son received his learners permit the two planned a date and she let my son practice switching gears with HER CAR! "It was old anyway", she would say. Sabra was a teacher, a friend, a cheerleader. Always encouraging and applauding for jobs well done. She will always hold a special place in our hearts.

“ Anita: I am reaching out to you and your family and would love to speak with you at any time.

Sabra and I talked -- but not enough in this last year.

She was a dear, sweet, kind and intelligent lady.

As well as beautiful and funny.

I am sorry we did not get to spend this past Xmas together -- especially when she needed the comfort of family.

No matter what transpired I am honored to have known her and I grieve for you and yours.

I was lucky to know her in life.
