“ Ginger and Family, I am so saddened to hear of your daughter's passing. Reading these remembrances and seeing Sharon's pictures remind me so much of you back in the day - always smiling with a contagious laugh and a caring heart. My heart breaks for you and your family. Will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Words cannot express all the joy my family received from Sharon each and every time she was around. My children, Jason and Michelle, grew up with Sharon and they played together as siblings. She was thought of at times as an older daughter by Pat and I. She always lifted our hearts and made life more enjoyable and fun after hearing her laugh and joke around. We are so proud of her accomplishments at work and with raising a wonderful family and experiencing the joy of being a grand mother. She said many times how much she loved you and Pete and appreciated the help and guidance you provided over the years. All I can say is that my family loved Sharon dearly and will miss her forever...

“ Sharon was such an important person in our life. She was kind, a wonderful mother, and treated any kids that hers brought home as family. When you were around her, you couldn't help but smile and feel joy. I will miss baking chocolate chip cookies with you, shopping, and just talking. Zach will miss the days of spending time with your family and all the amazing times you shared together. We love you and you will forever be missed . If your family needs anything, we're here for them . Our prayers are with you. We love you !

“ I was a next to next door neighbor of Sharon for several years before I moved out of the area. I first met her at the bus stop and wasn't quite sure what to make of this loud lady with a strange laugh that would talk-the girl could talk-to anybody! It wasn't long before we were good friends and someone I consider to be a true friend. Sharon was like Mary Tyler Moore. She could turn the world on with her smile. ALWAYS the life of the party. Never afraid to speak her mind. Loyal to those she loved and cared about and would throw down in a heart beat if ya messed with her family. I had the pleasure of going to West Point with her once to visit her grandparents and it was one of the best days of my life. (On a side note - her grandma makes the best pickles!) We sang at the top of our lungs the ride there, had some meaningful convos and just enjoyed the day. Anybody that knows Sharon knows that she at times had quite the potty mouth. Well she was who she was and wasn't selective about who she swore around, including her grandparents-who were used to it. I commented to Sharon that she should probably try to watch her language in front of her granddparents

My story continued. Well her grandma said you should listen to your friend Sharon. Well, she looked right at me smiled ever so sweetly and said "f#*k" you Molly and laughed that one of a kind laugh of hers. We made a promise to each other a year's ago that we've both kept. I will continue to keep it. Because knowing her she would find a way to get even!!!! I will forever remember you as one of the truest friends I've ever had the privilege to know. Sleep well with the angels my friend. Let me find out I love you.

“ I first met Sharon when she was about five years old, and she struck me as a very happy little girl -- and one of the cutest ever! Through the years, when I would see Sharon while visiting her Mom and Dad, she always made me feel welcome. I will remember her as an upbeat, happy person -- gregarious; the life of the party.

My wish for family and friends is that your own memories of Sharon bring you peace at this sad and difficult time.

“ It is so sad that life sometimes does not allow family to stay in touch and spend as much time with each other as we all deserve. I am so glad I saw you several times in the last few months and I have many, many memories of absolutely wonderful times with you. Life was not always good to you but you didn't let it slow you down or change your kind and loving attitude. I love you and always have, I can never ever remember us having a negative word, only love for each other, You are going to be missed so much. Over and over you hear everyone talk about that laugh, that silly laugh of yours, yep that's Sharon. Sadie was telling me, how much she loved you and that whenever you and Rickey visited Ric and Michelle you always came down and visited with her. She appreciated the fact that you cared that much about her and shared with me how much she will miss you and how concerned she was about Rickey. I want to thank you for being a wonderful and loving wife to Rickey, a great daughter-in-law to Ric, an absolute awesome Mom to Lacy and Austin, Grandbabies looked so good on you, look at that smile on your face, it was just love, love and then some. I think you certainly lived up to the saying..... You danced in the rain, You Loved with all your heart, You mothered those that needed it, You were a friend when a friend was needed, you were a great daughter, a great granddaughter and just a wonderful person. We will all love and miss you more than words can ever say..... Love and miss you forever, Aunt Patsy

“ Very saddened at the Passing of Sharon, Lovely Mother, Wife and friend to so many. I knew her to be kind and understanding to everyone she met and always respectful to others. The Love for her Family was great as their Love for her was. At least now the Lord has another Angel in his home. We will all miss you. RIP
