

Shelia Mae Baker

July 18, 1955 - November 9, 2020

Shelia Mae Baker 65 of Charles city Virginia entered eternal rest on November 9th 2020

Shelia attended school in Charles city Virginia, where she attended and joined Saint John Baptist Church at an early age. Shelia worked in the Henrico public school systems for over 20 years until an injury derailed her. In 1971 she gave birth to her beautiful daughter, Tangela Monique Baker-Wallace. In 1975 she entered a life long romance with Temple Crump. Her hobbies included going to yard sails, fishing, collecting movies, spending time with her loved ones, and gambling. During her later years taking care of her beloved dog peewee and creating long-standing relationships became her passion.

Shelia is preceded in death by her mother, Gladys Viola Baker and her father, Waverly Lindbrugh Charity Sr.

She is survived by her fiancée Temple Crump; daughter, Tangela Baker-Wallace(Dallis Wallace Jr); siblings, Doretha Baker (Delbert Miffin) and Waverly Lindbrug Charity Jr; grandchildren, Dallis Wallace III and DaLeila Le'Nae Wallace; Devoted nephews, Jose Baker and Logan Wade Charity; a great-niece, Sha'keria Ann Shelton; as well as devoted family members, Roy Cotman, Tracy Baker, Joey Baker, Carlton Cotman. Angela Jefferson-Stith(Bennie Stith), Da'vondria Jefferson. and devoted friends Laverne

Greene, Kecia Hughes and many more.

A private graveside service will be held.
