

Sheri Yolande Yolette Washington

March 26, 1965 - November 7, 2020

Sheri Yolande Yolette Washington, 55, of Jasper, Florida joined our Lord in heaven on November 7, 2020.

Sheri was born on March 26, 1965 at Freeman Hospital in Washington, D.C. She attended elementary, junior high, and high school in New York City. After three decades in New York, she called Virginia home for 12 years before settling in Florida in 2009.

Sheri was an avid reader – it was a rare occasion to not see her with a book in hand. She also enjoyed quilting and knitting. She was an active member in her local book and quilting clubs, always looking forward to the camaraderie, reading new books, and learning new stitching techniques. Sheri was family-oriented and supportive in her thoughts and deeds, and believed with the strength of God, you could accomplish anything.

Sheri is survived by her daughters, Marquita Givens (Kenton), Ti-Juana Warren, and Mary Wortham (Nathan); mother, Alice Wallace; her siblings, Zandra Smith and Antonio Washington; and grandmother, Mary Wallace. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Ava, Javier, Shanna, Siara, Sherae, Elias, Alizander, Phoenix, Kaylin, Caleb, Jamari, Elijah, and Emmanuel; nieces, Leann, Ny'Asia, Ne'Vaeh, Tatiana (Tremaine), Taylor, Shanice, and Malani; nephews, Nazia, Tahj, Trace, and Tristan. She was preceded in death by her sister Wynonna Williams; grandson, Nathan Wortham; and, grandfather, Charles Wallace.

There will be a celebration of life service 10 a.m. Thursday, November 19th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181.
