

Spencer McClellan Adsit Jr.

June 17, 1948 - January 17, 2024

Spencer McClellan Adsit, Jr. died peacefully Wednesday, January 17, at Hospice House of Williamsburg. He graduated from James Blair High School in 1966, and from Virginia Tech as a Mechanical Engineer in 1973. He remained friends with a few James Blair classmates for the rest of his life. He also had close friendships with cousins, coworkers, and hunting buddies. Spencer was a mechanical engineer to his core, a Hokie, an avid bird hunter, a sometimes fisherman, a storyteller, a dog whisperer, and had a remarkably quick wit.

Spencer was preceded in death by his parents, Spencer and Florence; his wife, Wanda; and several beloved dogs. He is survived by his daughters, Heather (Todd Walter) and Kristin (Michael Creasy); his grandson, Isaac; granddaughter, Laine; step-granddaughters, Montana Short (David), Rylie Baum (Jake Hubbard) and Piper Shannon (Andrew); step-great-granddaughter, Hazel May Short; and his 1966 Pontiac GTO.

Per Spencer's wishes, there will be no service. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Williamsburg Hospice House, williamsburghospice.org/donate.

Tribute Wall

BD

“ Billie Dean lit a candle in memory of Spencer McClellan Adsit Jr.

Billie Dean - January 26, 2024 at 06:43 AM