“ Stan was the best brother in law anyone could ever hope or pray for. Intelligent with a comical side to his demeanor. precious memories of fishing & family get togethers will be dearly missed. He always gave intelligent advice on any topic. Praying for Rae, the children, grand children & the entire family. Connie & I both were both blessed for the strong family bond he represented.

With Love,
Rick Casey

“ Rae,

I am very sorry to hear of Stan's passing. Stan and I were friends for nearly 80 years. We grew up in the same neighborhood, along with a close group of kids who spent our days running around together. Even back then, Stan was always interested in things that were a little different from the rest of us—he was a bit smarter, curious, and always engaging. He was simply fun to be around.

Later, when we moved out to the beach, Stan became my next-door neighbor. He had a car and I didn't, so we spent a lot of time riding around together. Those were great years, and I have many fond memories of that time.

Eventually, we went off to college and our paths went in different directions, but a few years ago we reconnected. I would call him from time to time, and we'd talk about what was going on—who was doing what and what was happening with friends and groups we both knew. Stan always seemed to know everyone and everything that was going on.

He also enjoyed writing short snippets and sharing them with others. Not all of them were meant to be funny, but many of them were, and quite a few were very good. They reflected his personality—thoughtful, observant, and often quietly humorous. If you wanted to know what was happening, or just have a good conversation, talking with Stan was always time well spent.

I will miss him greatly and will always cherish the many years of friendship we shared. Please let me know if there is anything I can do.

“ Rae,

So sorry to hear of Stan's passing. You and Stan were a perfect couple, each adoring the other. As you know Stan and I go back to elementary school in Plymouth, then high school at PHS. We were roommates at NC State all 4 years. Then the two of you married and you know the rest of the story, a romance for ever. Take care. If you are in Raleigh give me a call...Miller
