“ To the entire Hula Family: Stanley was a wonderful friend His sincere handshake was always appreciated And welcomed by so many of us. It is said that The true mark of a great person is the impact their life had on their community. Stanley surely during his life made a significant impact upon his family, friends , community and agricultural profession. He will be dearly missed by so many of us but surely never forgotten.

“ Stanley made life better for many, many people. I saw his support of his parents when they became older , his children as they developed their careers, and others in Agriculture. He was a giver and not a taker. He listened, smiled, and only then shared his wise opinion. He is the person that taught me that no till wheat and never till is the way to go. I will miss Stanley.

“ We love Mr. Stanley and his family. We was a strong Christian man who shared the love of Christ wherever he went. He loved his family and church family. He was a strong positive Christian role model to our children and grandchildren. Mr. Stanley served as a speaker at revival this fall. After Mr. Stanley finished,our 8 year old grandson Eli accepted Christ as his Savior! Thank you Mr. Stanley for loving us so much!

“ We are so sorry for your loss and we know he is already missed but we know that he is home. There are very few words to describe him but these are a few that always come to mind honest, strong, loyal, fair, loving, firm and faithfilled. I always knew if I had a problem I could call him and with a few words he would always send me in the right directions, it may not have been the way I wanted to go but it was what was right and best for me. Thanks Uncle Stanley you will be truly missed.

“ Stanley and Nancy were second parents to me and my sisters. Almost every important event in my life included them and I have too many memories to list. I will miss him tremendously but I am so happy that he is now reunited with his son and Nancy. David, Johnny and Jeff- I am so sorry for your loss. Please let me know if I can help in any way. Sending much love your way.
