“ I just came across Steven's obituary this evening not knowing what happened to him. I'm still in total shock finding out about his sudden passing. This news has deeply effected me. It breaks my heart.

I knew Steven, his mother, Bernice, and his sister, Mollie for years during the time they were active members in The Williamsburg Turtle and Tortoise Society and Rescue. Steven really did a lot to stay focus on the activities our chelonian society was actively taken part with.

Steven even had a turtle named Speedy that he took extra care of and would proudly showed Speedy off to other group's members as well to visitors at our meetings. He was an exceptionally delightful young man. Robert, my husband, my father (John Trenholm) and I were very impressed with Steven's knowledge about he learned from taking care of Speedy and what he learned from our group as a whole. He passed on his knowledge onto others. He definitely wasn't a shy young man.

I just wanted to stop here to pay my respects to his family. They are in my prayers.

“ It's been many years since I helped make fresh wreaths with Bernice, but I remember Steven as a young man at home still, raising his chickens. So full of love, life, and potential. It is absolutely heartbreaking to know that he has passed. My deepest sympathy to Bernice, Jimmy and Mollie.

“ Steven has been the best of friends to my son Ross and to all our family for many years and we will all dearly miss him. He was kind, soft spoken, good humored, helpful, and thoughtful without fail. He has given his time and knowhow on more occasions than I can count to help fix a vehicle, cut up and haul away a tree, bring us wreaths at Christmas, etc., always with good humor and a chuckle. When he was not working, he brought a quiet cheerfulness to beach days, barbecue, fireworks, target shooting, holidays, and camping, and none of these things will be the same again without him. I did not share his love of motorcycles, but my son and others did, and it did not surprise me to hear a story of how he went out of his way to help a fellow cyclist. I hope he knew how much he meant in other people's lives. Our hearts are with you.

“ I haven't seen Steven in many years, but I have so many memories of being with his sister Mollie and having this super-sweet boy around. Cherub cheeks and blonde hair and such a tender heart that was always kind... even on the rare occasion he was annoying his sister. He didn't gave a cruel bone in his body... some people are just too good to spend a minute longer on this lost earth than they gave to. May he find peace and joy in the arms of Jesus, until we can all "hang out" again. God bless your memory, Steven!

“ Steven was one of the cutest, nicest little boys you'd be happy to know. He and my husband Dan had a love for an animal, a fish, that most of us fear. Sharks! During visits, while we girls chatted, they'd leaf through the many shark books that Dan had. He gave several to Steven as they were leaving one day and Steven was so appreciative. Not too long ago, Mollie brought us up to date on Steven. Apparently, that little boy grew up to be one of the nicest, caring men you could ever hope to know.
