“ Stuart was my first friend. I met him when I was 11 months old. My mother had me in January and he came along in December. Stuart and I went thru school together him becoming a chef and me a nurse. He was everyone’s friend and gave his all. He was speaking to me when the nurses were hooking him up to the machines on FaceTime and said “love you, tell everybody I love them”

“ Stuart was the epitome of joy, even when he was hurting. He always said and did things to make me laugh. Lori always said we were like brother and sister with our crazy sense of humor. That was an honor. Trying to pick just one memory where he made me laugh, encouraged me, showed compassion and true friendship, is impossible, because all of that was naturally Stuart. My prayers for strength during this sad time for the family, Lori and the kids. Lori, Kaitlyn and Joshua, I'm sending unending hugs to you. May he Rest In Peace, no pain, only singing, with his beautiful voice in Heaven.

“ The first thing that comes to mind when I think of Stuart is exuberance. To be honest, he could also be annoying to four younger girl cousins who he thought needed his special brand of teasing. We would be downstairs at our grandmother's house at night and he would sneak in while we were watching television and scare all of us while laughing hysterically.

It's hard to say goodbye even though we were not as close as we were when we were younger. That happens with time and space and it's only when the worst happens that you look back and regret that lack of closeness. I know that his empty chair at the next family get together will leave an emptiness in everyone's heart as we gather. I also know that I'll miss that mischievous behavior and look back on the memory of sleepless nights in my grandmother's basement with gratitude.

“ I loved you from the first day you were born. The day you left to be with Jesus you took a part of my heart with you. I’ll love you forever and always. I taught you how to walk when you were little, and it did not take you long before you caught on and you were all over the place. I babysit for you and Barbara a lot and took you and her to day care when I was on my way to high school. That was the only way I could use your mama’s car. I didn’t mind though. We had a lot of good times at Grandma’s and Naylor’s Beach. I remember one time you took me out on the float and you kept going out into deep water. I started yelling for mama, (your grandma), and she said, “Stuart, bring her back, don’t make me come out there to get you,” but you kept going. I could not swim good and was afraid. He told mama, “I’m not going to let anything happen to her, because she’s my auntie.” So, I made it back to shore.

I will miss your strong hugs and when you send me Mother’s Day texts with cute pictures that move.

I’ll always remember when you and your mom came to spend the night at grandma’s house and you did not want to sleep in the living room so you came in and jumped on the water bed and I nearly flew off. No one slept that night because you would not behave.

I’ll also remember the times you went to the races with us and how you were in the infield practically begging the guitarist for Collective Soul for a pick, which you eventually got and then made Lisa hold the entire race and wouldn’t let her keep.

One of the last times I saw you was at your house. You invited Debbie, Lisa, and I over for dinner. It was after Mama died and was a nice quiet night where we were able to reminisce.

I’ll love you forever and always Stuart.

*Love forever,
Aunt Carolyn*

“ *Lori, Kaitlyn, Joshua, and Janet,
You all are in my thoughts and prayers. When I first started dating James, he would often comment about his sister's children who were Stuart and Barbara, his niece and nephew. He was extremely proud of them. Stuart would often go bowling with us, but what I remember the most was his bubbly personality and unique sense of humor! He kept us laughing whenever he was around. Stuart was a great person who will be missed by young and old people alike. He loved you all so much, and made his life as happy as s could be! May God bless you and keep you in the palms of his hands. Pamela Setterholm*

“ *Stuart was loved by all who knew him. I loved seeing and talking with him on Wednesday nights before Bible classes. He would always look forward to us bringing him hot peppers from our garden (the hotter, the better) which he would dehydrate for later.
He sure could play his guitar and sing, making beautiful music.
He is loved and will be missed by all who knew him.
Prayers for Lori, Kaitlyn, and Joshua.*
