“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Denney family and with Susan's children and their family during this time of loss. We can all rejoice that Susan is out of pain and is now smiling in Heaven.

I met Susan and the Denney family through her brother, Steve. I am blessed to know everyone and for having known those who have already made their journey to Heaven.

God bless.

“ I don't even know where to begin. I keep think back to when you and I were little children and living on Newport News Ave. in Hampton.. We always had so much fun together.. Even with me being 10 years younger than you, you would always let me tag along.. I can remember riding your bike and picking green apples or walking to West End to get a bottled coke.. I thought you were the coolest sister ever because you had a easy bake oven and we could bake cakes in our bedroom.. I can still picture the windows open and curtain flowing with the breeze from outside and we were laying in our bed watching the Waltons we loved that show. And on Friday nights we would watch The Brady Bunch.. I remember all the Friday nights of playing outside and watching all of the people go to the football games.. I remember the day you got married and I cried my eyes out because I thought My sister was leaving me and I would never see you again.. Little did I know that you would still be my best friend... We have had so many good times together and I have loved every second of it.. I loved how I could always call you and say I am going to North Carolina do you want to go and on Friday night we would hit the road... I loved that I was able to share with you my favorite place in the World which is Walt Disney World... I am so Thankful for our last trip we took last March.. I will always cherish that road trip for so many reasons... and lets not forget all our hundreds of road trips to Hampton... You and I didn't care what we did as long as we did it together.. Thursday night as I saw you take you last breath you went on the greatest roadtrip of all and that was to Heaven.. I didn't need you to call me to tell me you made it there safe because I know the Lord was in control and he was bringing you home safe and sound.. I have done nothing but think about you over the past few days and I miss you more than you will ever know.. Please watch over us, your Grandbabies and My Levi.. Give Mom, Dad, David, Richard, David, Bonnie, Bobby, Aunt Bruce, Uncle Casey, Uncle Henry, Ray, and Vickie a Big hug and kiss for me .. And when you see Carl hug him extra tight for Me, Pam, Holly, Amanda, Barbara, Clayton, Cindy, David, Reed, Clay, Mia, Ashton,

Payton and Tell him to watch over Baby Noah.. Susan I Love you so much and this isn't Good bye.. Sending hugs and kisses until we meet again. Love Your one and only sister <3
