

Terry Keith Cotman Sr.

January 16, 1970 - February 16, 2022

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, heaven gained an angel. Terry Keith Cotman, Sr., a beloved husband, father, son, brother, nephew, uncle, cousin and friend was called to eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Calvin C. and Izola Cotman, and Joseph and Betsy Brown. Terry was born January 16, 1970 in Charles City County, VA to Calvin Leon Cotman and Deborah Diane Brown. He attended Charles City County Public Schools and joined Little Elam Baptist Church at an early age. He was employed for more than 30 years as a lift operator by UNFI, formerly known as RichFood. Terry married his high school sweetheart, Roxanne Johnson on November 4, 1995. He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife Roxanne Johnson Cotman; two loving children, Tanisha Brown (Christopher, Sr.) and Terry Keith Cotman, Jr.; one grandson, Christopher Brown, Jr.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cotman; sister, Stacie Cotman; nephew, Keishaun Cotman; mother-in-law, Martha Allen; father-in-law, James Jefferson; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Terry was an exceptional husband, a devoted son, a one-of-a-kind father (DA), a spectacular grandfather (Poppy), brother, uncle and friend. As a father-in-law and son-in-law, he was unparalleled. He was just matchless, no one could compare. Family was first to him. His friends will always remember his love for cars, whether racing, building or fixing. If you were having any vehicle issue, being there to assist you or resolve your problem was second nature to him. He just loved being able to help, whenever he could.

A funeral service will be held 1PM, Friday, February 25, 2022, at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. A visitation will be held from 5pm-7pm Thursday at the funeral home. Burial to follow services in the Jerusalem Baptist Church Cemetery, 14321 Sandy Point Rd, Charles City, VA 23030.

“ To Calvin and Diane, I was so shocked and hurt when Cheryl called me this morning to tell me of Terry’s passing and his funeral. The news was so painful. Terry was one of my son, John’s, best friends-I called him Johnny. Johnny spent almost as much time at your house in Charles City as he did at his own house in Richmond. Terry taught Johnny a lot about fixing cars and saved him a lot of money. I remember too that they were fishing buddies. They both loved to fish. I remember Johnny telling me that he and Terry had purchased a boat. He was so anxious for me to see it. On my next visit to Richmond, he took me to see the boat. I told him and Terry to have fun on their boat because there was no way they could get me in it. I just tried to call you, but I couldn’t leave a message. I tried to get a listing for Terry’s home but none was listed. The last time I saw Terry was at Johnny’s funeral, December 2007. I will keep you and your family in prayer. I hope to make contact with you soon. Johnny was 49 when he passed and his buddy was 52. So so young for both. I grieve with you because there is no hurt like that of loss of a child. I hope to talk to you soon. You can reach me at 757-675-4987. Love to you all from me, Velma (Johnny’s sister) and Cheryl. 💔💔💔💔💔

“ Hi family, I just found out about Terry’s transition last night about 10pm! Terry was the absolute best! He and my late husband John Green were truly like brothers! Thankful for the last visit he made to check on me! Just one of God’s Jewels. I will forever remember him. Calvin and Diane, I will try to find my way down to visit. Give my love to Roxanne and the entire family! Love you all! Cheryl Ivey Green

“ It was always a pleasure being around Terry. He was a very special person. So nice, so kind, so talented, so intelligent. The type of person that could be an equipment operator, a mechanic, a race car driver, or had the intelligence to be a brain surgeon if he set his mind to it. He was always fun to be around and I will always cherish the brief times we spent talking about cars or insurance, or just life in general.
