

Thomas "Tim" Joseph McCue Jr.

April 17, 1954 - December 28, 2017

Thomas "Tim" Joseph McCue, Jr., of New Kent, VA, formerly of South Plainfield, NJ, passed away Thursday, December 28, 2017 after a long illness. He was a federal firefighter at Military Ocean Terminal in Bayonne, NJ for 25 years, eventually serving as fire chief. He was transferred to Virginia 19 years ago and served as assistant fire chief of Fort Lee, Virginia for 6 years before retiring. Tim was also a volunteer firefighter in Scotch Plains, NJ and Prince George, VA. He was passionate about fire models and the fire service, and worked as a columnist for Fire Apparatus Journal.

Thomas was preceded in death by his parents, Thomas and Veronica McCue. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Judith McCue; two daughters, Megan McCue and fiancée Rocky Babb, and Melissa Loubier and husband, Anthony; and his mother-in-law, Winifred Jacobsen.

The family will receive friends 2-4 PM, Wednesday, January 3rd at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. A funeral service will be conducted at 6 PM, the same day, also at the funeral home, after which the family will again receive friends, until 8 PM.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Fallen Fire Fighter Memorial at iaff.org.

“ Tim was 4 years old when Donna my first child was born. He could not wait to see the new baby and was so happy. Our 4 daughters really enjoyed Tim growing up. I had many lovely phone calls with Tim since I have been living in Colo. He will be missed by many, but we will have good memories concerning his life. May the family especially Judy be blessed with God's love and grace. Peace and much love to the family, Nancy Burns
