

Ulysses Wise Jr.

December 14, 1976 - November 4, 2023

Ulysses Wise, Jr., 46, of King and Queen, VA, went home to be with the Lord on Saturday November 4, 2023.

Ulysses was a proud graduate of Central High School and always enjoyed his classmates and friends. He had a passion for cars, especially older models and enjoyed cleaning them up looking showroom ready. He also had a love for motorcycles and was a past president of the Blu Thunder Motorcycle club where he was known as “Diezel.”

“Bookie” as his parents called him, loved them and enjoyed every moment he spent with them. He was a big help in caring for them and always doing what was in their best interest. In spending time with them, “Bookie” learned the art of cooking, and stole the title of “head cook” from his “Pop”. When he wasn’t helping his folks, he was spending time with his friends. He had a close bond with some of his chosen brothers and they always stuck together. They enjoyed hunting and hanging together outdoors. During football season, you could hear him loud and proud about his San Francisco 49ers.

Ulysses was a member of the the American Legion Post 144, in Sandston, and enjoyed the fraternal brotherhood that ensued. He used to work for Bareford Buick and drove dump trucks and hauled Waddy, Young and Sons Trucking and then for J.E. Banks. Most recently, he was the entrepreneur of his own lawn care business, where he took pride in the lawns he kept. Ulysses was a loved family member and friend, who will be missed by many.

Ulysses is survived by his parents, Ulysses, Sr. "Boonie" and Viola Wise; children, Quan and Aven; siblings, Ricky Taliaferro (Alice), Tara Ra'Oof (Nakim); aunts, Pearline Wise, Linda Edwards, Rosie Jamerson and Marie Taylor; uncles, Pluto Wise and Horace Jones; special friends, Kimberly, Kay, Tony F., Dwight, Dominique, Gail, Mike, Edward, Jay, "Gator", Harold, Isaac, Tony P., Stevie and Brody; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A funeral service will be held 1pm Saturday, November 11, 2023, at First Baptist Church of Hockley, 2356 York River Rd, Shacklefords, VA 23156. A viewing will be held from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., Friday, November 10, 2023, from Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181.

MASK WILL BE REQUIRED AT THE CHURCH FOR FUNERAL SERVICES

THANK YOU

“ To Pops and Mrs Wise, I am sending my condolences and your son "Deizel" was a blessing. I haven't processed this yet that my club brother has rode to Heaven. Deizel you will truly be missed. I remember the day we met and we all went to Buckoe beach; I had just got my MC license. That was the day we decided to become a club. By the end of the day you said "You started out as grandma and you are riding that TRICK". I could go on forever.... Your love Wanda will be okay. I want to Thank you for being a father and Papa to Muffin and my grands. I hope to be able to meet Aven. Love ya Deizel.. Unpredictable

“ My Bookie where do I start. We met in the late 90's. You adopted my kids to be your kids. You watch them grow into ladies and gentlemen. You was so proud of them and their outstanding accomplishments in life. Even when we separated we remain best of friends. My heart is torn into millions of pieces. Your kids heart is broken and they are hurting. Your memories lives in us forever. We was cruising on 64 you was driving the red mustang and I had the yellow mustang. I love you always and forever. Love your kids Shaun, Jasmine, Lacey and Alex

“ Lil Bro,
"God Makes No Mistakes." He allowed us to meet and we became brothers. You have been such a blessing to my/our lives. The Waddy family will miss you and your spirit, but your spirit will live in us forever. I miss you already hoss, and like you told me before "You got my back," I never saw less than that from you.

So now I say to you... "I GOT YOUR BACK."

Avan, Kaiden, and Lil Mama and your extended family will be fine.

Wanda, Dominique, Kiara, Nicole and so many more will miss you.
