

Vernis Lorraine Joyner Norman

April 22, 1929 - October 15, 2012

Vernis Lorraine Joyner Norman, 83, of West Point, Va. passed away October 15th 2012. She was known to many of the local residents as a long time teller of The Bank of West Point, now known as Essex Bank. Lorraine was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Theodore E. Norman, and a daughter, Channing Norman-Evelyn. She is survived by four daughters; Thea Norman, Rebecca Thompson, Abbie Lee, and Camille Norman; three brothers, eight grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, many cousins and friends too numerous to count. The family will receive friends Thursday, October 18th, from 6-8 p.m. at the Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, Va. 23181. A graveside funeral service will be held 11 a.m., Friday, October 19, 2012 at Sunny Slope Cemetery, West Point, Va. In lieu of flowers contributions can be sent to West Point Vol. Fire and Rescue, P.O. Box X, West Point, Va. 23181.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved mother. I will never forget all of the good times I shared with your family. Your mother always welcomed me into her home and treated me like family. She was so much fun and had a beautiful soul. She will be missed by all who had the good fortune of knowing her. I admired her love for her family, I adored her great spirit, I appreciated her hospitality, and I will carry her in my heart forever. Much love and sympathy,
