“ I’m so saddened to hear Vicki’s passing. She was a great person. I have fond memories of playing with Vicki and dinners with Uncle Willy and Aunt Tatu (her grant parents). We lived next door on 33rd Street. Life is so short. I pray for the family and for your loss.

“ Vicky you gave me my first job at VCU. I so enjoyed working with you. I loved our little excursions (shopping trips lol). I was shocked when I found out you had passed. My condolences to the family during this time. You can shop all you want in heaven.
