

Walter Dzula Jr.

March 23, 1946 - December 5, 2017

Walter Dzula, Jr., 71, of Toano, went Home peacefully on December 5th, 2017. He was a vegetable farmer all of his life who retired from RockTenn after 48 years as a machine tender. He was especially dedicated to his family and his farm, and it was no surprise that he could be found out on the tractor between chemo treatments.

Walter greatly enjoyed hunting, cooking, canning, eating Boston Crème Pie donuts, recalling the history of Barhamsville, visiting friends, attending farm auctions, finding treasures in antique stores and more than anything, spending time alongside his wife, children and grandchildren.

Walter was preceded in death by a son, Billy Taylor. He is survived by his wife Debbie; three daughters, Kathy (Ben) Lanham, Beth Dzula (Dustin Calhoun), Peggy (Buster) Bryant; a son, Trip (Betsy) Dzula; three granddaughters, Sarah, Taylor and Megan Bryant; two grandsons, Sam and Will Dzula.

A funeral service will be held 11 AM, Saturday, December 9th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point, VA and a reception will follow at West Point Masonic Lodge, 2126 King William Avenue, West Point, VA. Those who would like to bring food to the family, can bring it to the Masonic Lodge, after 10 AM on Saturday morning.

The family will receive friends 5 to 8 PM, Friday, December 8th, also at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to James City-Bruton Volunteer Rescue Squad, PO Box 321, Toano, VA 23168, or the Virginia FFA Foundation, PO Box 40, Weyers Cave, VA 24486.

Debbie, I didn't know your Walter, but enjoyed so much of the wonderful vegetables he grew. I live in New Kent Co. off of Stage Road and your veggie stand was something I always looked forward to, and your wonderful blackberries. I am so sorry for your loss and send my sympathies to your entire family. Annette Gross
