

Walter Harry

February 18, 1956 - November 4, 2011

Walter Scott Harry, age 55, of West Point, VA, died November 4, 2011. Scott was born February 18, 1956, in Quantico, VA, the son of Clifford R. and Dorothy L. Harry. He graduated from Carver High School in Columbus, GA, in 1974, attended the University of Georgia, Columbus College (GA), and the University of the State of New York, where he earned an associates degree. He served 6 years in the US Navy and worked for AGFA Corp. where he retired after 20 years of service. After retirement he worked for two years at the VA Dept. of Game and Inland Fisheries in Stephenville, VA, where he enjoyed raising fish and cutting grass. He also worked at US Postal Service Distribution Center in Varina, VA, for six years. Scott was a friend to everyone he ever met, and was loved by everyone he knew. One of his greatest enjoyments was playing with his dogs at his home with Gwen. He is survived by his loving wife of 31 years, Gwen Messler. He was preceded in death by his father, Clifford R. Harry. Scott is survived by his mother, Dorothy L. Harry, of Columbus, GA; his sister, Sandra Lee Jones and her husband, Dexter, of Dothan, AL; his nephew, Matthew Jones, of Columbus, GA; and his father and mother-in-law, Roger and Marilyn Messler of Yankton, SD, and Gwen's extended family. The family will receive friends 6-8 PM, Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2011, at the Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point, VA 23181.
