“ Growing up in West Point was the best for those of us who spent our youth there. Bud bee and I were the catalyst for many adventures there, bring first cousins living near each other on Kent street he just if 14th and me between 16th & 15th. The York supply was a play ground for us in the warehouse where 100 lbs of feed bags were stored. Daniel Bray had a fishing pier near by where we could go crabbing or fishing, Bud bee wasn't big on fishing though. Beverly Allen was another play ground for us, many friends like June & Charles Jackson, Gerald, Buckshot, and Harold Thronton were pals as well. Mickey Gresham, and many others lived near by and we all played baseball on a field near Mrs.Epps house. Miss Fortchen Hall kept an I on all of us while we ventured thru the alley ways behind the Macintire truck repair store.. Mt Nebo Baptist was our church and we all went to Sunday school. Mama Cille, our grandmother was a guiding light for us as well. Our parents were very close,his mom my dad were sister and brother, so we were all connected.

I got drafted in 66 and left home, Army, Bud bee was still there. I didn't see him again until 2009, after we both had gotten older. His passing is sadly reminiscent of my brothers passing, yet I realize the relief he now has from the struggles of illness he suffered with for so long. What I remember from see ,Walter in 09, was that he thought he was older than I, but I made him aware that he was the youngster, lol..

God wins, our family has gained an Angel, who joins the table to fest with our ancestors have gone on to glory.

My he rest eternally in Peace with the Lord..

While we all " keep on ticking", one in of favorite gaffs..God Bless all the cousins, Robert, Rose,Pracilla, Everlyn Annette, and his wife Vanessa, and children..TO GOD BE THE GLORY,AMEN..

“ Being the youngest girl with a fiesty mother and older brother Bubbee, I learned quickly how to be a fiesty younger sister from the best two teachers.

I give God all the praise for such good examples as those tricky lessons Bub taught me that have help mold me into a person that will be reflective of my brother and mom who can never be forgotten. Now that you are at peace with our savior, mom & dad, there is no better place! Love you All!
