

Wanda Bonita Houston

February 3, 1957 - August 26, 2023

Wanda Bonita Houston, 66, a cherished resident of Richmond, Virginia, peacefully entered her heavenly rest on Saturday, August 26, 2023.

Born to the late Lois “Goonie” Bowman-Houston and Henry C. Houston Jr., Wanda's journey was marked by a profound connection to her family and loved ones.

Wanda is survived by her loving children: Elton W. Jefferson Jr., Wayne A. Cosby Sr., Timothy M. Jefferson Sr., and Daniel I. Jefferson. She is also survived by father, Henry C. Houston Jr., brother, Henry C. Houston III, and her five beloved grandchildren: Alante Roots, Amiyah Jefferson, Aidyn Edwards, Wayne Jr., and Timothy Jr. Her warmth extended to her aunt, Delores Manning, cousins Jeanne Sparrow Wilcox, Alj F. Sparrow, MD, William H Sparrow, Houston Adegoke, and her uncle John Houston.

A true prayer warrior, Wanda's devotion knew no bounds, as she fervently lifted up those she loved and cared for. Her unwavering support and guidance were beacons of comfort for anyone seeking solace. Yet, her courage in speaking her truth, unapologetically and without reservation, stood as a testament to her authenticity. This unwavering honesty was a quality that endeared her to many, making her a cherished confidante and a wellspring of inspiration.

Wanda's influence spanned many roles: sister, daughter, mother, wife, grandmother, cousin, and cherished friend. Each facet of her identity left an indelible impact on those fortunate to know her. Her legacy of love, wisdom, and boundless compassion will forever shine as a guiding light for all who had the privilege of sharing in her journey.

A private graveside service, held at Cedar Grove Baptist Church Cemetery in Charles City, VA, allowed us to honor Wanda's memory in a deeply personal way. It is here, among the embrace of her mother and other beloved family members, that Wanda's spirit finds eternal peace.
