To Vicki and to Warren's entire family I am saddened by your loss. I've always had a great admiration for Warren and I thank God that I had the opportunity to visit with him and the family back in May. After the visit I was so inspired by Warren's attitude towards his challenges and life in general. Visiting with him inspired me like nothing has in a long time. Any man would be fortunate to end up being the man that Warren is. God bless him, and his family. Steve Weis.

Warren was such a great man. He was a God centered family man that was not afraid to say I love you and show compassion. My heart goes out to the family, I know he was a cornerstone to his family. He was funny and light hearted and he was stern and serious about his beliefs. But most of all he was a husband, a father, a brother, grandfather, a awesome cousin and a child of God that loved his family. My heart is a little lighter knowing he is in good company with his family that loves him so much.

To the Hite Family ,I'm sorry that my brother Warren had to leave us so soon .I worked with him for 10 years at Cadmus in the finishing division ,he demonstrated integrity ,and commanded the floor with his voice of reason .Warren was well respected ,but shied away from the lime light .He made his work speak for him . Now I know God doesn't have anything broken or in need of repairs in the Heavens (but) you know Warren is trying to convenience him that anything can be improved (smile)

Well, as I remember as a child, Warren was always picking on someone. He was so mischievous but in a good way. He never spoke a bad word about anyone and loved his entire family so deeply. My precious cousin, I will always remember those times we had together laughing, joking and skim boarding at the beach. You may be gone and in Heaven now but you will not be forgotten. To your precious family, may the peace of knowing that Warren is in the hands of God as one of his most precious angels bring solace in this very sad time. All my love, Caroline Paynter-Taylor and all of the Paynter family
