

Warren Douglas Lampkin

July 2, 1931 - June 2, 2018

Warren Douglas Lampkin, 86, of Charles City, passed away June 2, 2018. He was born July 2, 1932 to the late Milton and Hazel Lampkin, and went on to serve in the US Navy, being stationed in Cuba during the 1950's. Warren was a deputy in Charles City County, serving under his father, who was sheriff at the time, and also later worked in the lumber industry. He was an avid outdoorsman and hunter, and was well-known for his extensive knowledge on the topics. Warren was a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his grandson and hunting buddy, Jonathan Peet.

Warren is survived by his sister, Irene Archuleta, and brother, Irvin Lampkin; two daughters, Pamela Lampkin-Webb (Charles) and Sharon Smith (Wayne Murphy); grandchildren, Kristina Williams, Brittani and Brandon Smith; and great-grandchildren, Emily Williams and Kale Smith, who were the reasons he smiled.

The family will hold a memorial service 3 PM, Sunday, June 10, 2018 at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, 19300 The Glebe Ln, Charles City, VA 23030. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Youth Fund (address above).

“ There is not a time in my life that doesn't have a memory of you in it. You were always there when needed and even when you weren't needed. You were always loyal even to a fault. I could depend on you every three weeks to show up and tell me how to cut your hair, I will miss that very much. Finally you can grow your garden with no complaints and no pain. Say hello to daddy for me. Love ya.
