“Denise, Thinking of you sweet friend during this time. I took these pictures a few weeks ago when I was on my drive back home. The beautiful sunset over the farm and of your beautiful horse. Ben will be missed by many friends and your family. So sorry for your loss.

“ A true man. He took in the twins as his own and raised them to be gentle and kind to all they encountered. He will be greatly missed.

“ Like so many I grew up with Ben and his family. Quiet, tall dark and handsome! Denise and he formed a once in a lifetime bond. He was smart and his coworkers admired his thoughtful way of guiding them as well as working outside side by side each of them. He made the world make sense in time of chaos. What a great man and friend.

“ I have known Ben since he was a teenager living close to me in Charles City. He never changed from the quiet young man that loved to hunt and fish. He was always respectful and kind to everyone. I was so happy when he and Denise got married and I knew he was going to be blessed for the rest of his life. You will be missed my gentle friend.
