

William Thomas Cambell

November 22, 1946 - September 19, 2019

William “Bill” Thomas Cambell, 72, of Williamsburg, VA passed away September 19, 2019 after battling cancer. He was born November 22, 1946 in Xenia, OH to the late Garnet and John Cambell. Bill worked for Ryan Incorporated Central building landfill as a superintendent for 29 years and enjoyed traveling for his job. His free time was spent riding his Harley and spending time with his grandchildren, which he truly loved.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents, Garnet and John Cambell; a daughter, Monica; two brothers; two sisters; two brothers-in-law; a grandson; a step-son, Ricky, Jr.; his first wife, Peggy; and mother-in-law, Cecilia Barlow. Bill is survived by his wife of 19 years, Debbie Cambell, of Williamsburg, VA; step-daughter, Danielle Cosenza (Scott) of Keyser, WV; step-son, John Henderson (Sarah), of Radford, VA; son, Billy Cambell (Lisa) of Xenia, OH; daughter, Tina Cambell of Blanchester, OH; eleven grandsons, John Robert, Steven, Brandon, Dwayne, Michael, Ricky, Billy, Guy, Cody, Justin and Robert; eight granddaughters, Diana, Ricki, Susanna, Amber, Veronica, Jessica, Ashley and Diana; six great-grandchildren; several nieces, nephews, including Donny and Michelle, who were especially good to Bill; as well as numerous great-nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
