

William Creekmur

December 24, 1990 - February 22, 2010

William Ruffin Creekmur beloved, son, grandson, and our gift from God, died suddenly February 22, 2010. Ruffin graduated from Middlesex High School in June 2009 and was attending Rappahannock Community College. He loved and lived his life to the fullest! He adored his family and friends. He loved to snowboard, paintball, surf, wakeboard and playing his guitar. He treasured his trips to Spain and Canada with his good friend Harrison, and “chillin” with his many friends and his girlfriend, Rachel Lee. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn Copland Haupt and stepfather, George Henry Haupt; father, William R. Creekmur, Jr. his wife Heidi; stepbrothers, George Henry Haupt III, his wife Carol and Benjamin Graham Haupt, his wife Tracy; and sister, Makena Creekmur. He is also survived by his grandmothers, Ridgely K. Copland and Susan Moenssens, and grandfather, William R. Creekmur, his wife Bunny. He was predeceased by his Papa, George F. Copland. He is also survived by his treasured aunts and uncles; MaryPat Copland Davis, Curtis N. Davis, George F. Copland III (Jeff), Tammy P. Copland, Garnett Copland, Charles E. Haupt, J. Warren Haupt, Fred Baughan, Nelms Creekmur, Alan Baughan, Suzanne Etherington and Mark Moenssens. He will be missed by countless cousins and friends. He will remain at North Bend Plantation, his ancestral home, 12200 Weyanoke Road, Charles City, Va., 23030, where the family will receive family and friends, Wednesday, February 24th, from 5 to 8 p.m. The funeral will be held at Westover Episcopal Church of Charles city, 11 a.m., Thursday, February 25th with burial following in the church cemetery. We, his family, are so thankful for the joy he brought us and the love he gave us! He truly was our gift from God and our beautiful boy. Memorial contributions can be made to the Central Middlesex Rescue Squad, Box 790, Urbanna, Va., 23175, or to the Westover Church Discretionary Fund, 6401 John Tyler Highway, Charles City, Va. 23030.
