“ Dear Erin, Chris and Family, first, we want to tell you our hearts break for each one of you! We are all to familiar with the way each of you will miss your husband, father, father in law, and grandfather as we have experienced our share of sadness and loss of loved ones recently. Assuage your grief with thoughts of his endless love for each of you! you won't need to look very far to see the many ways in which he expressed his love for you all.

As Erin's mother and father-in-law and Chris' Mom and dad we could always see Chandler's caring and gentle nature on display. At family birthday gatherings or holidays he always had a smile on his face for something one of the kids had said or done. Though he would always stand quietly in the background his presence was always known to each one of us as a kind man. If Chris or Erin ever needed him for anything he would always be there. We know our son well and we know that he admired Chandler and thought the world of him.

Chandler will be missed for certain but he will never be forgotten!
We will pray for you all during this most difficult time.

With our endless love,
Ed and Tammy Davis
