“ Billy was always loving and a real joy to spend time with. He would always be there when you needed a friend to talk to or help out with a project. Although I have not seen him lately, we corresponded by email and Facebook and he was always a delight with his jokes and stories. His love for Karen was abundantly shown and he was always very proud to introduce her to his friends. I am very proud of Billy for the life he chose and how he inspired others to be like himself, generous, and humble. He will be missed.

“ Mr Moore was always, always so good to me growing up. Cameron and I were best friends growing up and we always had so much fun. Especially going to the River on weekends! Or just driving him crazy at the house with our weekly sleepovers :) Wonderful memories of a wonderful man. Hugs to you all!

“ Many years ago I met Billy on an internet chat site my late husband started. We became fast friends and have always kept in touch. On that same site we also found Karen and so did Billy. A wonderful romance started with those two and to our happiness they met, fell in love, got married and loved to their fullest. Billy will be missed by all. Heaven has a wonderful angel this day. Prayers to you Karen and your families.
