“ Dear Dan and Jane,

My memory of Billy goes back to the many times the whole Palenski crew stayed at my little house in Delaware for a number of summers quite a while ago. The Palenski boys spent the whole time outside playing baseball, and Dan told me that this was the breeding ground for their love of baseball (and the Orioles)

My family said a prayer for Billy, and all of the Palenski's, last night at dinner, and we will do so again tonight. I feel heavily for your loss, but I firmly believe that you will see Billy again some day, and that will be a very very joyous occasion.
