“Wortley, my friend, your and Allen's friendship to Rex and me years ago was so special and brings sweet memories. I remember those wonderful evenings at your lovely home with friends, good food and a lovable dog! And all because of our guys' love of flying model airplanes. I have special memories of what a good friend he was and how much fun they had flying. I hope all the sweet memories you have will help to bring you comfort at this difficult time.

“Allen had a wealth of knowledge on so many topics. He was always cordial and a gentleman who appreciated the land, friends, and family. Our love and sympathy go out to Wortley, Allen, Ann Brook, and to all his extended family and friends. Allen, may you walk the fields of heaven while watching your favorite dog pointing and flushing a beautiful covey!
