“ Dear Mary, Tory and Anna,
I have admired Wilton for his commitment to family, church, and friends, and for his welcoming smile to visitors like us since we first met him several years ago. Ever since this illness, I have prayed for him regularly... and he knew that I did.
My prayer now is for all of you....that you will feel the reassurance of your faith, that you will feel the love of friends, that you will smile beyond the tears.
We returned to Georgia yesterday. Adele told me today that Nancy Summerlin will conduct the service and that Nancy and Dale Saunders will do the music. How perfect! Blessings and love...Marianna Keese

“ Karen and Terry,

We are truly sorry about the loss of your father and our cousin. We are praying for you both and I know he loved you both the same. You both loved him the same as neither of you could do enough for him. He was an awesome man. Not many men like him in the world anymore. He will be missed by everyone that knew him. We love Wilton and will miss him very much.
