

Wilton Thomas Osborne

July 4, 1936 - April 14, 2022

Wilton T. Osborne, 85, of Charles City, Virginia, went to be with the Lord on April 14th, 2022. He is preceded in death by his father, Nathan Osborne, his mother Beulah Finch, his sister Peggy, and brothers Jimmy & John Wilton was a veteran of the Korean war. He was a hardworking man. He loved his tractors. He built roads and could tell by sight what something would cost to clear and rebuild. He could tell you what was wrong with a car just by hearing about it. Wilton loved from his heart and was an emeritus member of the New Covenant Community Church, under the pastoral care of Rev. Dr. Milton A. Hathaway, senior pastor. He was also proud of his family and loved being together. He rarely complained. He was a dad to all of us and he endlessly took care of Carolyn. You are at peace now!

Wilton is survived by his wife of 26 years Carolyn. Daughter Paula, Stepdaughter; Angela Bartlett (Robert), Stepson; John Hambright. Grandchildren; Jonathan, Zachary, Justin, Ashley (Christopher), and Savannah, and lifelong friend Wayne Pavlovich.

The family would like to thank the friends for their thoughts in this time of need, and the staff at Vincents Funeral Home. A celebration of life will be held at a later date this year.

“Mother Carolyn and family, Dr. Sylvia and I, and your entire New Covenant Church family are praying for you as we prepare to celebrate the wonderful life of our friend and member, Wilton Osborne. He was a good man with a gentle spirit guided by unwavering confidence in God. He loved family and friends unconditionally. and was always willing to help anyone he could. He truly LOVED his wife Carolyn and he knew she loved him. I am convinced that the strength of their marriage was their genuine friendship. Like you, I will miss Wilton, but I am confident that he now lives in heaven and that one day we will get to see him again.”
